

North Providence School Department
Elementary Summer Reading Assignment (incoming grades 3-5)

Directions: Please choose 3 activities from the grid below for each book you read this summer

C	During your first read of the story, write 3 - 4 questions you had about what you read.	Write a question you had while reading. Infer what you think the answer could be. Use text evidence to support your answer.	Write 3 questions a character in the story would ask.
H	Identify two words that were new to you in the story. Using text clues, what do you infer they mean?	How is the narrator's point of view different from your point of view?	Do you agree or disagree with the main character's point of view? why?
O	Pick a character in the story you would or would not want to be friends with and explain why or why not.	Choose a part in the story that made you feel a certain way. Use specific evidence from the text to support how & why you felt that way.	If you were asked to direct a movie for this book, which famous actor/actress would you cast for the main characters?
I	What is the lesson or moral of this story? What key details from the text let you know this?	How did your thinking about the topic in the story change as a result of reading this?	What were the sequence of events in the story?
C	Identify the feelings of the main character. How did his or her feelings contribute to what happened in the story?	Identify the motivations of the main character. How did his or her actions contribute to what happened in the story?	Please list the character traits of the main character. How did his or her traits contribute to what happened in the story?
E	Draw your favorite part of the story.	Write the first three sentences of a sequel to this story.	If you were the author what change would you make to the story?